

Quality Policy

Rotofilt Engineers Limited is emerging as a Global Indian-Manufacturer and solution provider in the field of Solid-Liquid Separation and allied equipment.

The objective of Rotofilt Engineers Limited is to design suitable equipment and achieve quality through engagement and development of its human capital. Rotofilt is committed for effective implementation and continual improvement of Quality Management System.

At Rotofilt Engineers Ltd.,

- All the engaged people are required to produce and deliver products of excellent quality on schedule at the competitive price.
- All are committed to maintain high quality standards with effective process of the Customers and the applicable legal requirements.
- All the engaged people are committed to fulfill the requirements of all interested parties.
- All are committed for the customer satisfaction by providing expected and required services with an effective customer feedback system.
- The sincere motive is to become a prime learning organization and development of all internal engaged people for the growth.
- Together we Grow, Progress and achieve Success.

Kishor Makyaha
Managing Director

CONTROLLED COPY